

PROJECT 800

JOE ANDRUZZI
FOUNDATION

Is your school, classroom, grade, sports team, or club looking for a way to give back? Be a part of something bigger and join Project 800 with the Joe Andruzzi Foundation (JAF).

Project 800 is a community of students, who come together with one common goal of supporting New England cancer patients and families struggling with financial barriers during treatment.

This program is perfect for educators, coaches and group leaders to engage student of all ages in philanthropic activities focused on building character, integrity and responsibility – all while having fun!

What is the significance of 800?

The number 800 represents the maximum amount of direct financial assistance each patient recipient/family is eligible to receive through JAF. Project 800 provides students with a tangible, highly impactful way to directly affect a local cancer patient struggling with financial barriers during treatment.

YOU CAN HELP! By joining Project 800 and hosting a single event or multiple events like a car wash, bake sale, hat day, t-shirt campaign, canning campaign, dress down day, etc. and committing to raising a minimum of $800.

An $800 donation will help a patient/family pay for...

- One month of electric and cable bills
- Two months of car payment bills
- Six months of car insurance bills

Benefits to being a Project 800 Organization/Member

- Official Project 800 Certificate of completion
- Opportunity for leaders to attend Project 800 end of school year party to celebrate, mix and mingle with JAF staff and other Project 800 members
- Impact Report - your group will receive a Project 800 annual impact report highlighting the critical difference your efforts had on a local cancer patient and their family

How will JAF help? We will provide:

- Mission collateral
- Flyer template
- Access to JAF logos
- JAF branded items for give-a-way
- Dedicated support staff to help guide you in creating a successful campaign
- Access to a branded fundraising platform if needed

The Joe Andruzzi Foundation (JAF) was established to serve cancer patients of all ages throughout New England who are experiencing financial and emotional hardships as a result of a cancer diagnosis. Cancer-related income loss or reduction coupled with rising treatment costs can lead to financial stress as families struggle to cover their everyday expenses. JAF understands that crucial living expenses are not put on hold because of a diagnosis, and our Financial Assistance Program helps alleviate financial stress through the distribution of grants and gift cards to assist with rent/mortgage payments, utilities, food, and other household expenses. JAF is committed to providing help, hope, and a reason to smile, for New England cancer patients and their families by contributing financial support when it is needed most.
